

NKUST Entrepreneurship Winter Workshop Startup Smart in the Post-Pandemic Era!

Objectives:

The pandemic is certainly a crisis, but it also presents a great opportunity to start new business ventures or bring other changes to our world with business-start-up ideas. The objectives of this workshop are as follows: a) to foster business mindset and entrepreneurship among students in higher educational settings, despite the pandemic disruption, b) to build an international network of students who are interested in starting up a business, and c) to contribute to the creation of global startups in the future through this 2-day workshop. Students will be equipped with structured trainings, cultural exchanges, pitching opportunities, and more. The aim of the workshop is to allow students of different cultures and backgrounds to collaborate on unique entrepreneurial opportunities that are available in the current situation.
